- 2.(a) Why Jesus was rejected in the synagogue at Nazareth after reading from the Book of Isaiah.

- The reading from Isaiah was about the work of the Messiah. Isaiah prophesied that the Messiah would be sent by God. Knowledge
- The Messiah's mission was to bring salvation to the oppressed and restore sight to the blind. His mission was to bring freedom to the captives.
- Jesus claimed that the prophecy had been fulfilled that day. This meant that he was the promised Messiah.
- He condemned the forefathers of the people for killing the prophets.
- Jesus challenged their unbelief by quoting two incidents from the Old Testament.
- The stories were about God's prophets, Elijah and Elisha, who were rejected by the Israelites yet they were accepted by the Gentiles.
- The people were surprised for they knew Him as the son of Joseph, the carpenter.
- The people realized that He was condemning their unfaithfulness. He compared them unfavourably with the despised Gentiles.
- Jesus explained that prophets are not accepted in their home areas.
- They got furious with Jesus and tried to kill Him. They led Jesus out of the city with the intention of killing Him. However, their plan failed.

2. (b) The healing of the Gerasene Demoniac.

- Jesus and His disciples arrived in the country of the Gerasenes after sailing across the sea of Galilee.
- A man possessed by demon met him from the city. The demons had no clothes, and he lived among the tombs.
- When he saw Jesus, he fell before Him and loudly said, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, son of the most High God? I beseech you, do not torment me." For Jesus had commanded the unclean spirits to come out of the man.
- The man had been bound in chains and fetters and kept under guard and many times the demons seized him, and he broke the chains and ran away into the desert.
- Jesus asked the man his name.
- The demoniac answered, 'Legion,' because many demons had entered him.
- They begged Jesus to send them into the pigs which were feeding on the hillside, so Jesus let them leave.
- The demons left the man, entered the swine and the animals ran and drowned in the sea.
- When the herdsmen saw what had happened, they fled and told it in the city and country.
- Then the people came out to Jesus to see what had happened. They found the man whom the demons had left clothed and sitting at Jesus' feet, in his right mind.
- They were afraid, hence the people asked Jesus to leave their territory.
- Jesus got into the boat and returned.
- The man who was healed wanted to accompany Jesus but Jesus told him to go and proclaim to others how much God had done for him.
